Corporate Training in Organizational and Political Savvy

Consultant Bio

Sudhir Seyboth studied at the technical university in Munich and worked in the early 80's as an Engineer and IT-consultant at BMW's developmental centre. In his role as a project leader he participated in leadership trainings and his growing interest in personal development made him change his career in 1985.

Sudhir started to work as a consultant and coach in personal coaching and leadership development. In that field he has led seminars and trainings in USA, Scotland, Germany, Sweden, Finland, Norway, Denmark and Italy. He specializes in leadership development personal coaching and personal improvement for executives.

In 1997 Sudhir moved to Sweden. He works as management consultant in areas such as navigating organizational politics, communications, leadership development, motivational psychology, quality management, customer and cultural surveys for Swedish Companies and Universities.

Born in Munich, Sudhir is fluent in English, German and Swedish with basics in French and Norwegian. Because of his multicultural experience he also facilitates global b2b networking processes, delivers cultural change programs as well as coordinating processes for building core values and corporate identity.

Sudhir moved 2004 to Stockholm, where he works in his own company and continues to share 20 years of experience as a seminar leader, coach and trainer. His clients include: IKEA Sweden, IKEA Customerservice IKSC, IKEA IT-services, Volvo Truck AB, Oracle, Microsoft, GE, Astra Zeneca, TietoEnator Medical Care, University of Sundsvall, Faculty for business and Economics University of Umeå.

Sudhir joined the European IPM Consulting Network in 2005 which led to his 2007 affiliation with Brandon Partners and assumption of responsibility for facilitating high visibility strategic influence programs for UBS and other companies.

SUDHIR SEYBOTH

A management and leadership development trainer and coach with diverse industry and cultural range that earns instant respect.

Sudhir transcends run-of-the-mill corporate trainers and leadership experts who only have psychology or human resources grounding, since he brings a rich background in business and technology to the classroom experience.
