

BRANDON PARTNERS

Corporate Training in Organizational and Interpersonal Savvy

Consultant Bio

Genevieve has more than 20 years experience in leadership and organizational development. She has successfully delivered programs and conducted initiatives in the United States, Canada, Western and Eastern Europe, and Japan.

Genevieve's areas of expertise include: leadership development training, executive coaching, strategic communications and influencing, organizational savvy, executive presence, time mastery, leading teams, meeting effectiveness, and performance management.

Genevieve currently focuses on leadership development and coaching, primarily supporting the financial services sector. In addition to her work with Brandon Partners' Organizational Savvy program, recent projects include designing and delivering leadership and influencing programs, team coaching, and engaging in individual coaching.

Prior to starting her consulting practice, Genevieve spent nine years with Citigroup. There, she held various roles including serving as an internal consultant to senior business heads in the Corporate and Investment bank as well as managing the leadership development curriculum for North America. She was also on the coaching faculty for Citigroup's senior-most leadership program sponsored by the CEO.

Prior to Citigroup, Genevieve spent 3 years with Prudential Securities as a senior trainer where she delivered all of their management development programs. She also spent 5 years with a division of the May Department Stores Company where she was responsible for the college recruiting and executive training programs.

Over the course of her career, Genevieve has helped over 2500 leaders through delivering over 500 workshops and coaching over 200 individuals. Her certifications include: Marshall Goldsmith's Stakeholder Centered Coaching, Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), Fundamental Interpersonal Relations Orientation (FIRO-B), Thomas-Kilmann Instrument (TKI), Personnel Decisions International (PDI) Profilor Series, Time Mastery Profile.

Genevieve received a BS degree in Marketing from Pennsylvania State University and a Masters degree in Organizational Psychology from Teachers College - Columbia University. She and her husband, Robert, have two children, Ryan and Jackson. They live in Lexington, MA ■

GENEVIEVE B. DAVY, M.A.

Genevieve is a talented, engaging trainer and facilitator focusing on leadership development, organizational savvy, and team effectiveness.

“ My areas of expertise include: Organizational Savvy, Executive Coaching, Leadership Development, Performance Management, Interviewing Skills, Leading Teams, Influencing Skills, Meetings Effectiveness, Time Management, Career Development and Facilitation Skills.

”