Corporate Training in Organizational and Interpersonal Savvy

Consultant Bio

Kathy has over 20 years of consulting and corporate experiences, she is a Senior Consulting Partner with Jupiter Consulting Group, a boutique consulting firm focused on 'Adding Life Back Into Work'. She provides transformational leadership expertise, assisting clients in strengthening their organizational effectiveness through coaching and facilitation. Kathy has worked with a broad range of businesses across the US and internationally. She coaches at all levels of management providing expertise and insight into a variety of business issues. Her unique blend of dynamic facilitation and personal, supportive education yields high-impact results in an ever-changing business world.

Prior to her consulting career, Kathy spent over a decade developing in-depth business knowledge by working for Fortune 500 companies. In her corporate positions, she supported leaders and organizations alike in identifying and managing employee needs. She worked in a variety of human resource leadership roles and served as an internal consultant. Because of her strong facilitation skills and her fresh perspective on organizational issues, Kathy quickly became a trusted, proven advisor. Her diverse corporate experience has equipped her with an intimate understanding of the assessment, development, and facilitation of human resource disciplines as well as a strong sense of the challenges faced by individuals, teams, and organizations today.

Facilitate, Coach, Change. These three elements lay the foundation of Kathy's commitment to her clients. Kathy loves to facilitate through complicated issues by asking difficult questions, the questions others, perhaps, haven't thought to ask. She sees these challenges as opportunities for individuals and organizations to grow stronger and more resilient. In her coaching, Kathy empowers her clients to develop creative, workable solutions which address obstacles that impede transformation. She enjoys supporting others in their efforts to achieve success by encouraging them to realize their full potential. Kathy strives to help others in their journey to change. Overall, Kathy desires not only to see her clients succeed, but to see them thrive – in work and in life.

Kathy earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology from Illinois State University and completed a Masters of Education in Mental Health Counseling from Purdue University. She lives near Chicago, enjoys time with family and friends, and those peaceful moments when she can read a whole chapter of a book in one seating. ■
