

BRANDON PARTNERS

Corporate Training in Organizational and Interpersonal Savvy

Consultant Bio

Holly St. John Peck has a reputation for being dynamic, genuine, professional, and personable. She has over 20 years of experience in training and coaching leaders, managers and individuals in Fortune 500 Companies, Private Organizations, and for Universities such as UTD and SMU. She's also taught as a adjunct professor at SMU teaching EMBA students how to present in business.

Holly has worked with top name clients around the world such as Alcatel-Lucent, Amway, BELO, Behringer Harvard, Cisco Systems, CVS/Caremark, Citigroup, FedEx Office, Ryan, Texas Instruments and Wells Fargo. Clients have hired her to train in Africa, Australia, Asia, Canada, Europe, Mexico and South America. Holly is certified to deliver Brandon Partners' Organizational Savvy and Straight Talk programs, and she is passionate about developing people in the 3 Ps of Leadership: Presentation, People and Political Savvy Skills. She is an accomplished speaker too; she not only coaches executives in delivering compelling keynote addresses but ASTD's SW Learning Symposium has rated her as the "Best Speaker of the Conference" for two years in a row.

Holly earned a BA in Communication and Public Address, and is pursuing graduate studies in Human Relations and Business. She is a member of the American Society for Training and Development, and International Coach Federation .■

HOLLY ST. JOHN PECK, CLC

is an exemplar at teaching and coaching high-impact presentation skills, organizational savvy, team skills, coaching skills, and a host of strategic business competencies. Many corporate trainers view her as "the trainers' trainer," and program participants marvel at her ability to establish instant, lasting rapport.

“

Holly has consistently delivered, with rave reviews, programs on politics and influence, interpersonal skills, leadership skills, personal and professional effectiveness, and various personality types.”