

BRANDON PARTNERS

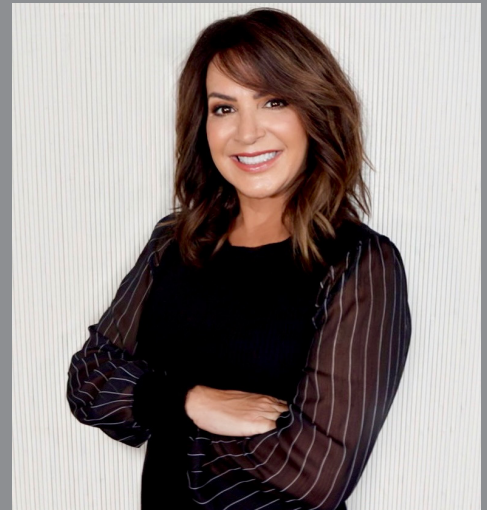

Corporate Training in Organizational and Interpersonal Savvy

Consultant Bio

Holly St. John Peck has a reputation for being dynamic, genuine, professional, and personable. She has over 35 years of experience in training and coaching leaders, managers and individuals in the Fortune 500 and Global 1000, Private Organizations, and for Universities. She's also been a professor at SMU and UTD teaching MBA students how to present in business.

Holly has worked with top name clients around the world such as Cisco Systems, Coca-Cola, CVS/Caremark, Citigroup, Discover, FedEx Office, Goldman Sachs, Heineken, Keurig Dr. Pepper, Nokia, Ryan, Texas Instruments, Toyota, Verizon, and Wells Fargo. Clients have hired her to train in Africa, Australia, Asia, Canada, Europe, Mexico and South America. Holly is certified to deliver Brandon Partners' Organizational Savvy and Straight Talk programs, and she is passionate about developing people in the 3 Ps of Leadership: Presentation, People and Political Savvy Skills. She is an accomplished speaker too; she not only coaches executives in delivering compelling keynote addresses but ASTD's SW Learning Symposium has rated her as the "Best Speaker of the Conference" for two years in a row. She has co-authored two books.

Holly earned a BA in Communication and Public Address, and is obtaining an MBA in Strategic Leadership (2026). ■ is an exemplar at teaching and coaching high-impact presentation skills, organizational savvy, team skills, coaching skills, and a host of strategic business competencies. Many corporate trainers view her as "the trainers' trainer," and program participants marvel at her ability to establish instant, lasting rapport.

HOLLY ST. JOHN PECK, CLC

“Holly has consistently delivered, with rave reviews, programs on politics and influence, interpersonal skills, leadership skills, personal and professional effectiveness, and various personality types.”